

Local sausage Surpøsje

Kr 263,-

A traditional sausage from Røroskjøtt served with turnip puree and boiled potatoes, lingonberry and Røros flatbread

Surpøsje has been an important dish in Nord-Østerdalen and Røros.

It was necessary to use all the meat from the animals during the slaughter process, and Surpøsja was stuffed with scrap meat, offal, barley, and milk. Then it was hanging for a week for fermentation before it was ready to eat. Nowadays we use beef and veal. There is a theory about where we got Surpøsja from. The Scots came up in Gudbrandsdalen in 1612 and they probably brought with them Haggis. We still have families with the surname Skott in our part of Trøndelag.

Contains: barley, milk , wheat and rye in the flatbread
